Studio Philosophy

Developing compassionate hearts and disciplined minds through the study of music.

“There is nothing difficult - only new things, unaccustomed things” - Carlos Salzedo

I EXPECT ALL HARP STUDENTS TO:

- Aspire to learn to play the harp well.
- Approach my suggestions with an open mind.
- Have at teacher-approved lever or pedal harp at home or school for daily practice, as well as the required materials listed in this handbook.
- Devote ample daily practice time between lessons in addition to time spent in ensemble rehearsals in order to attempt new ways of playing.
- Make every good faith effort to attend lessons regularly.
- Listen to recordings of pieces they are learning as part of their daily practice.
- Attend harp-related concerts, where the students themselves do not perform.
- Participate in performance opportunities that are mutually agreed upon by both student and teacher, to develop solo and ensemble performance skills. These performances may include: harp studio recitals, informal performances, American Harp Society events, summer harp camps or festivals, and competitions when appropriate.

Studio Policies

LESSONS

Weekly Lessons - Regular weekly lessons are available for 45 minutes or 1 hour. All school-aged (pre-college) students are required to take weekly lessons. Weekly 30 minute lessons are offered only to students under the age of 8, or beginners in their first semester of lessons.

Floating Lessons - Adult students who do not wish to take regular weekly lessons may take floating lessons. Floating lessons take place at least twice a month, and are available for 1 hour lessons only.

LOCATIONS

In-Person - at my studio in Arlington, TX. Students may bring their own harp, or play one of my Lyon & Healy lever or pedal harps during the lesson.

Online - utilizing video conferencing via Zoom combined with video recordings submitted by students between lessons. Regular online lessons are available at my discretion to students who live further than 30 miles away from my studio. Occasional online lessons are also offered to all students when I'm traveling, if family members are ill, during inclement weather events, during pandemics, or in other emergency situations.

Hybrid - a combination of regularly alternating in-person and online video conferencing lessons.

PRACTICING

Students who practice regularly enjoy playing the harp the most. I suggest following guidelines:

- A minimum of 15 minutes a day and 5 days per week is expected for all students.
- Students ages 5 and under: 5 minutes with enthusiasm, 3 times per day!
- Elementary School students & Beginning adult students: 30 minutes of harp practice per day. Practice time can be divided into multiple sessions per day.
- Middle School students & Intermediate adult students: 45 minutes of harp practice per day, in addition to time spent playing in other ensemble rehearsals.
- High School students & Advanced adult students: 1 hour per day, in addition to other ensemble rehearsals.
- Students preparing for college auditions and/or competitions at the state or national level: 1.5 hours (minimum) per day.

TUNING

- Harps must be tuned a minimum of 3 times per week.
- Tuning everyday BEFORE practicing is best for the harp.
- Students ages 12 and older are responsible for tuning their harp.
- Parents must tune (or supervise tuning) for elementary students.

ATTENDANCE

- I have set aside your lesson time to teach you so please be respectful of my time and make every good faith effort to be at your lesson.
- If you will miss your lesson for any reason, or are having technical difficulties online you must contact me directly via phone or text as soon as possible.
- Failure to give notice about an absence prior to the lesson time - i.e. no call, no show - will result in paying a $25 fee plus the usual cost of the lesson in question.

SCHEDULING

- All lessons will be scheduled and confirmed via our studio's online scheduling platform Fons <https://fons.app>
- Weekly Lessons: The student's regular lesson time is theirs to keep for one academic year.
- Floating Lessons: Floating lessons are scheduled at the beginning of each month via Fons.

RESCHEDULING & MAKE-UP LESSONS

- Students can reschedule ONE lesson per session (Fall, Spring, or Summer) for any reason, provided they give at least 36 hours notice prior to the original lesson.
- Rescheduling requests must be received and approved in writing (text or Fons).
- Lessons canceled with less than 36 hours notice, will not be made-up and will be charged the usual lesson fee.
- In cases of sudden illness or emergencies, a lesson may be made-up at the teacher's discretion (pending schedules) as long as notice is given via phone or text as soon as possible and prior to the original lesson time.
- If a rescheduled or make-up lesson is missed or cancelled by the student, a second make-up lesson will not be offered.
- Make-up lesson weeks are built into the calendar, usually at the end of each session.

EXTREME WEATHER & EMERGENCIES

In extreme weather or local emergency situations, in-person lessons will be held or canceled based on the decisions of the student's local school district, or emergency declarations by the local authorities (such as a stay at home orders, driving bans, etc.). Students will be notified via text or email regarding emergency related in-person lesson cancellations.

In these situations, online video lessons will be offered when possible. Or the lesson will be rescheduled during the dedicated make-up lesson weeks in schedule for that session.

TEACHER CONFLICTS

Should a conflict arise in my schedule, I will give notice as soon as possible and do one of the following:

- Reschedule the lesson in advance at everyone's earliest convenience or during the allotted make-up lesson days at the end of each session.
- Should I need to cancel at the last minute due to illness or emergency, I will call and/or email the student (or parent). A make-up lesson will be available during one of the make-up lesson weeks, or the lesson will be refunded.

SHORTENING OF LESSONS

I reserve the right to shorten or cancel the lesson at the student's expense should a student arrive late or unprepared (i.e., without their music or lacking sufficient practice). I have set aside my time to teach, therefore a lack of preparation is a lack of respect for my time.

Anyone who is visibly ill or showing signs of contagion may be asked to leave in-person lessons.

TERMINATION OF LESSONS

Lessons will be terminated for any of the reasons listed below, or at the discretion of the teacher.

- Failure to abide by studio policies
- Repeated lack of preparation (i.e. not practicing) or a routinely poor attitude
- Habitual absences or cancellations
- Perpetual tardiness

Students and families will be given one written warning, and one chance to change their behavior or resolve the problem. When the decision is made to terminate lessons, the student's regularly scheduled lesson time will be forfeited and possibly assigned to another student. If lessons are terminated by the student or teacher before the end of a tuition payment period, payment will not be reimbursed.

ONLINE LESSONS

Regular online lessons are available at my discretion to students who live further than 30 miles away from my studio. A hybrid combination of regularly alternating in-person and online video conferencing lessons is also available. Occasional online lessons are may be offered to all students when I'm traveling, if family members are ill, during inclement weather events, or in other emergency situations.

- Online lessons utilize a combination of both regular online video conferences using Zoom <https://zoom.us> AND video recording submitted between online lessons.
- Information about how to configure your space as well as your computer or mobile device for online lessons is located on my website here: <https://www.kelaharp.com/online-lessons.html>
- Recordings of your Zoom lesson will be available to view (privately) for one month in Dropbox before being deleted.
- Online students may be asked to submit a video recording of one piece (currently in the polishing stage) between lessons. It is much easier to hear musical nuances like dynamics and phrasing in video recordings, than it is to hear these things via Zoom. Therefore, these recordings are an essential part of the online lesson process.
 - ❖ Students can upload videos to Dropbox or Google Drive, or text videos to me if you do not have one of these online file storage systems.
 - ❖ I will provide positive comments and suggestions for improvement on the video performance much I would during a lesson. I may also send customized practice videos to students occasionally as needed.

HEALTH & SAFETY PROTOCOLS

- Always wash your hands before touching any harp, especially harps that are not your own.
- Anyone who is visibly ill or showing signs of contagion may be asked to leave.
- I will wear a mask if I've recently been exposed to or if I am recovering from an illness (and do not have a fever). If you would like me to wear a mask at other times during your lesson, please let me know.

Any of the protocols below may be put into place at my discretion during surges in the COVID-19 pandemic. Students and families will be notified by email should any of these protocols need to be implemented, and again when they are lifted.

- In-person lessons may be temporary suspended and replaced with online only lessons, or hybrid in-person and online lesson instructional model at my discretion.
- Students may be asked to bring their own harp for in-person lessons during pandemic surges.
- All parties may be asked to wear masks for indoor activities.

Tuition

- Tuition includes fees for lessons, recitals, and occasional group classes.
- Accepted payment forms: personal check, cash, or online via Fons <https://fons.app> (a service for automatic ACH bank transfers or credit card payments).
- If payment is not received by the second lesson of the tuition period (month or term), the student will not receive that lesson or any further lessons until payment is made. A $25 late fee will be added for each week payment is not received.
- If payment is not received within thirty (30) days of the first lesson of the tuition period, the regularly scheduled lesson time will be forfeited and possibly assigned to another student.
- There will be a $25 fee for funds returned by the bank for any reason, in addition to reimbursement for the original amount of the funds declined and bank fees.
- If lessons are terminated mid-month or mid-term, prior payments will not be refunded.

Performances & Events

To develop solo as well as ensemble performance skills, students are expected to take part in at least one of the following every academic year: harp studio recitals, informal performances, harp ensemble, American Harp Society events, competitions, and or summer harp events.

RECITALS

Students are encouraged to join their fellow studio members and perform on our various studio recitals. In the past these have included events such as:

Halloween Recital - held in October featuring fall or Halloween themed solos. Sometimes students get creative and “creepify” one of their favorite review pieces, or compose their own solo.

Holiday Harp Ensemble - performances at area senior living centers in December. Holiday Harp Ensemble pieces will be chosen based on the skill levels as well as the cultures and traditions of students performing. Students are also encouraged to play a solo at these events.

Spring Harp-B-Que - Recital and Potluck

Suzuki Book Recitals - students are strongly encouraged to give a graduation recital upon completion of each book.

Senior Recital - high school seniors are encouraged to give a Senior recital, and these may be combined with other seniors and on other instruments.

Local Harp Society Chapter Performances - students are encouraged to participate in their local American Harp Society chapter which may offer the Music Education Auditions & Evaluations program, masterclasses, ensembles, and other performance opportunities.

Harp Student Supply List

REQUIRED SUPPLIES

- Tuning Key – All students must have their own personal tuning key.
- Electronic Chromatic Tuner – Students (or parents of students under 12) must tune their harp a minimum of three days per week, tuning everyday is best for the harp. A separate electronic tuner, or an approved app on a mobile device is required.
- Tuning Pick-up Microphone – This device plugs into your tuner or mobile device and clips onto the harp; it helps tune in noisy situations such as ensemble rehearsals.
- Metronome – Must have a loud ticking sound! (Apps or stand alone devices are acceptable)
- Practice Planner – such as: spiral notebook or Suzuki practice sheets (in studio Dropbox), etc.
- One Three Ring Binder – to store handouts, lesson notes, music, etc.
- Music – Students are responsible for promptly purchasing and owning original (physical or digital) music and recordings of all music they perform, as well as other music as assigned.
- Adjustable Bench – It is best to buy one sturdy adjustable bench, this way as the student grows or switches to a different sized harp they can always sit at the proper height.
- Music Stand – Must have a sturdy desk (where the music sits) that swivels and the height should adjust. Folding wire stands are NOT acceptable because they are flimsy, easily collapse, and often damage the wood and finish of harps.

ADDITIONAL RECOMMENDATIONS

- Sproutbeat - Music Theory iPad curriculum for all levels and ages. Student accounts are purchased through me (our studio has a group discount) $25 per year.
- Grand Staff Flash Cards - for students learning to read music, can be purchased ready-made, DIY print and cut, or use an app like Note Rush.
- On Playing the Harp - Yolanda Kondonassis: This 150 page method book is full of helpful information about harps and technique with pictures! It will last any harpist for a lifetime – required for pedal harp students of any age. Published by Carl Fischer.

Music and supplies can be purchased directly from me. I offer shipping discounts on group music orders at the beginning of each semester, or you can purchase directly from the following retailers:
